Updates

President, Nicholas Spengler updates: No new updates.

Vice-President, Tyler Ocon updates: Senate applications were not due Monday, I extended the deadline to this Friday so if you're interested come see me.

Director of Business Affairs, Brittany Wolf updates: Great job to everyone at the organization expo. Reminder that treasurer training emails are going out next week and each clubs president and treasurer need to come.

Director of Inter-Residence Affairs, Carly Annable updates: I table sat today for the organization fair where I met a lot of cool people. IRC meeting is this Monday at 8 pm in the Hunt room.

Director of Public Relations, Lindsey Hebell updates: Knightlink promotional postcards came in. Kristen helped me out with those and they look great. I handed a bunch out at the organization fair. A lot of freshmen were interested and I got to tell them about SA and Knightlink. Now I'm just working on some more promotional stuff for Knightlink.

Director of Academic Affairs, Justin Shapiro updates: "Yarrg" SA mateys. AAC had its first meeting yesterday and it was really fun. Our first order was appointing Provost Long as our new advisor. We're still looking for a new secretary; we will be deciding on Tuesday September 20th, letters of interest are due by Monday the 19th. Email it to aac@geneseo.edu.

Director of Student Affairs, Stasia Monteiro updates: ACE is still seeking a vice chair. We are made up of 10 organizations with cultural and special interests on our campus, and the vice chair assists me and the ACE reps in treasurer duties, acts as a recording secretary, and helps with the promotion of ACE events. Submit an email with a short description of your experience to sasa@geneseo.edu. The intercultural film fest is on Saturday, September 17th at 6 pm in Newton. There will be 4 different films showing and an ACE expo.

Director of Student Programming, Heather Bristol updates: Tomorrow at 7:30 pm in Wads Contemporary Forum is hosting the "J-Spot". You might be used to "Female Orgasm", but this is in place of that. The guy who does this show is internationally renowned.

Kate Rebban, Director of SA Programs, Personnel, & Finances updates: Not present.

Patty Hamilton-Rodgers, SA Executive Committee Advisor updates: The deadline for applications for the fall undergrad research and travel grants program is September 16th, funded partially by SA.

Open Updates

Malcolm: SUNY student assembly will take place on October 28th -30th in Latham, NY. Anyone interested in going or about what it does, what Geneseo's role of the conference would be, come see me or let Nick know. Writer's house is holding a freedom of speech/constitution day event. It's open to the whole community.

Pride: First meeting tomorrow at 8 pm in the Hunt room.

LSA: Tomorrow our first meeting is at 6pm in room 324 upstairs in the Union.

Model UN: Having our first meeting tomorrow at 7 pm in Welles 26.

BSU: First meeting today at 5pm in the Fireside Lounge. We are also having "Back to School" at the Knight Spot at 10pm on September 23rd.

Old Business

None.

New Business

None.

Open Discussion

Nick Spengler says anyone that wants to, come take a door prize ticket.

Justin Shapiro says your prize is a 2 hour long dinner with me at the best McDonalds in Geneseo complete with screams, sound effects and me telling you how much leeches suck, get ready for that.

Nick Spengler says we are really raffling off gift certificates to Pizza Pauls, Aunt Cookies, Muddy Waters, and Micellis.

Adjournment

Meeting adjourned at 6:30 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lena Freed
Recording Secretary
